Dear Mr. Garrison

I duly received your kind letter about our friend Mawson. We printed them in the Chronicle & I sent Jm copies of the papers the next day.

It was a sad shock to us all. So unexpected & so unlooked for —

Mrs Manson bears up wonderfully under the loss. The sad catastrophe threw quite a gloom over this district, as few men were more respected than poor Manson ——

I hope you Reap in good health & that Mrs Garrison is better — Mr

Mr. Cheney has left us &
is now in America - Mr Oliphant desires to be kindly remembered to you so also does Mr. Hawkins (the late Mr. Ashworth's son in law)
& my father -

I often think I will go some day to America - I have many friends there & I have an intense regard for the people & the country - Perhaps I may some day run across you in Boston -

Give my best regards to your Son & daughter & believe me Ever dear Mr Garrison Yours very truly
Jos: Cowen Jnr
